The Kingdom of Heaven.
Daniel 2:44. "In the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed."
This kingdom that the God of heaven was to set up, was not a remodel of former kingdoms, but a new kingdom upon a different basis—a spiritual foundation—and therefore Christ said to Nicodemus, "except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God." Daniel, in a vision saw an image composed of gold, silver, brass, iron and clay, and a stone cut out of a mountain without hands, and it rolled against the image and ground it to dust, and it continued to roll till it filled the earth. Thus will the kingdom of God continue to spread and move forward through every difficulty that may arise until
"From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strands,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sands."

On and on till the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdom of our God and His Christ.

The Jew had a temporal and typical kingdom, and when it had accomplished the purposes for which it was instituted it passed away. They filled their day, and did it well, for they were God's peculiar people. All their sacrifices and offerings pointed to the one sacrifice—Christ. And when he was offered for the sins of the world the Jewish dispensation ended and a new order of things came into being. For the law and the prophets were until John, since then the kingdom of God is being preached.

The keynote of John's preaching was "repent for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Bring forth evidences that you have accepted Christ as your personal savior then I will baptize you and not otherwise. The multitudes flocked to him, confessing their sins and thus become members of the kingdom of grace that Daniel said be set up in the days of these kings. The Jewish nationality had now ceased to exist as such, and the kingdom of God, and grace was being established, and Christ tells Peter that the powers of darkness shall not prevail against it.

Though this kingdom has been put to the severest tests, by prosecution, by imprisonment, by fire and sword, by every conceivable means of torture, still it has grandly moved forward and today its subjects are counted by the millions.

Timid ones fear not, for God's promises are sure and steadfast. Heaven and earth may pass away, but His word will never fail.

Don't be personal in your religion. All churches are good; all churches are highways to heaven. There are dozens of railroad routes New York, they are all needed to accommodate the travel and no one makes a serious mistake by using any one them. It is the same way about religion. We all couldn't go to heaven by the same highway. Therefore do not call others fools because you have chosen to travel to some place by a different path.—Exchange.

Setting Himself Straight.
George Washington Thomas, an able-bodied negro of Sleepy Hollow, appeared before Magistrate Nussbaum charged with stealing chickens. The negro was accompanied by his lawyer, Col. Simmons, a rising young white attorney. The old Judge sauntered into the dingy court room where he had reigned for more than twenty years, and after calling for order he looked around on the little company there assembled. Seeing George Washington Thomas, he pointed to him and said:
"Be you the defendant in this case?"

Quick as a flash George was on his feet, and, not understanding legal terms, he exclaimed politely: "No, sah; no, sah; I ain't de 'fen'ant: dar's de 'fen'ant ovah dar." And saying which, he pointed to his lawyer. There was a general laugh about the room, in which the queer old Judge joined heartily. The darky felt abashed. He was visibly embarrassed, and, thinking to correct the mistake, if mistake it were, he said again, pointing at his lawyer, "Yas, sah; he's de 'fen'ant," and, pointing to himself, he said, "I's de gent'man what stole de chickens."—March Lippincott's.

Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was nearly dead, of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold, and guaranteed to cure, dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney disease, by all druggists, at 50c a bottle.

At an old fashion revival meeting the minister approached Minnie, who was only 10 years old, and urged to go forward to the "mourners' bench" for prayers, as many of her young friends had done.

"No, thank you," said Minnie, holding back.

"But why?" questioned the minister. "Don't you want to be born again?"

"No," replied Minnie; "I'm afraid I might be born a boy next time!"—Exchange.
